

*Stepping Stones
Pediatric Feeding
and Speech Therapy*

TAKE PART IN

FEEDING RESEARCH ATTENTION

Yadira Medina is recruiting healthy children to participate in a study to compare if music or television viewing impact oral intake in school-aged children.

Contact:
Yadira Medina
Stepping Stones
Pediatric Feeding &
Speech Therapy Clinic
355 Cherry Ridge, Ste. 218
(210) 614-4466

WHO: Typically developing children 5 – 12 years old.
No history of hearing loss or sensitivity to sound
No known allergies to food stimulus
Able to participate in room without parent
Meet baseline in three days
Identifies pudding as “yummy” or “just okay”

WHAT: Eat chocolate pudding while watching T.V. or listening to music.

BENEFIT/RISK: There are no significant risks or direct medical benefits for participating in this study.

COMPENSATION: You will not be paid to be in the study.

Comparison of Music and Television Viewing on Oral Intake
in School-Aged children.

Protocol #180206-02